Family (and Personal) Discipleship Resources

So many excellent resources are available for the teaching and training of both parents and children. In fact, many of these resources provide beneficial teaching and encouragement whether you have children or not! I encourage you to do some exploring!

Podcasts:

Ambleside Flourish Podcast (available online at www.amblesideflourish.com or through your favourite podcast app). In particular, check out the 4 part series called “Bringing Up Joyful Children” given by Bill St. Cyr. This is particularly relevant for these days of ‘being together.’ Highly recommended listening!

Other notable teaching series on this podcast are:

The Pursuit of Maturity
Parenting in a Digital Age

At Home with Sally Podcast (available online at www.sallyclarkson.com or through your favourite podcast app). Sally Clarkson provides such encouragement and solid Biblical teaching through her podcast. There are close to 400 episodes so you won’t run out of listening material! Maybe start with her most recent episodes and then explore to find topics that appeal to you.

Family Devotionals/Bible Teaching:

Right Now Media. Right now media is like Netflix for video Bible studies, family devotionals, and children’s programs. Normally Right Now Media is only available through a church subscription. However, given our circumstances, they have made a limited number of programs available for free to anyone who wants to access them. You will need to make an account, but it is free. Go to www.righnowmedia.org and click on the orange banner at the top of the page.

Keys for Kids Radio. Keys for Kids has been around for a long time! This is always a free program. If you are looking for a daily devotional to listen to as a family, then this one may interest you. Stories are well told and Bible teaching is solid. Access it for free at www.keysforkids.org

Thank You for Praying

"Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, and faithful in prayer."

Romans 12: 12

Notes of Praise:

- * Despite severe restrictions on how our church operates, our congregation has been very supportive and generous in its financial support. A special thanks goes to volunteers who have been picking up offerings from house-bound folks and delivering Mac & Cheese too!
- * Ernie Seeger has received an excellent prognosis after his surgery. Though he still has a surgery to remove the remaining cancer and put in a stent on April 1st, and the doctors still need to address an Aneurism, his doctors consider both issues to be 'negligible'. Ernie and Carolin thank everyone for their prayers and ask you to continue as go through these health concerns.
- * Charles and Tara Monteith's friend, Andrea, whom we've been praying for, is in remission. She will be undergoing radiation as additional treatment. Praise the Lord, and please continue to pray for Andrea.

Prayer Concerns:

- * Please continue to pray for those in our congregation suffering from on-going pain. Please pray for Emilia Pirc, Sue Furness, Ron and Lois Clattenburg, Jaqi Shennan, Rosalie Pankoff, Eleanor Leigh.
- * Please continue to pray for Otto Roman during his recovery and physio.
- * Sue Furness requests prayer for a friend, Amy (19y/o), suffering from terminal cancer. Please pray for comfort for both Amy and her family.
- * The Luchkanyns ask for continued prayer for their friends, Quin McColgan, suffering from cancer.

"With all prayer and petition pray at all times in the Spirit, and with this in view, be on the alert with all perseverance and petition for all the saints"

Ephesians 6 : 18
