Making Sundays Special

I saw a cute meme the other day.
Maybe you saw it too:

For those having trouble keeping track, it's Blursday
the fortyteenth of Mapriber.

Truly, these days do seem to blur together; one day is much the same as another. But Sunday is not just another day...it is the Lord's Day! And, while we have always known that Sundays are to be set apart and different from the other days of the week, if your family is like my family, we have struggled knowing what that looks like. Besides going to church...what do we really do to make Sundays stand apart?

Perhaps now, when we are self-isolating at home, is the time to reclaim Sundays as special! We can start precious new traditions for our families! Here are some ideas that might spark your imagination:

Attend church (Yes, the online version!) Let's not give up the habit because now is the time when it would be easy to do so.

Have a special family read aloud that you only read on Sundays.

Some suggestions:

Little Pilgrim's Progress

A missionary biography (YWAM has some exciting ones)

Check www.christianaudio.com for audio books that you can purchase at a reasonable price. They have an excellent selection of quality children's literature and you do not need a membership to buy a book.

Food! Food serves a special role in celebrations. Try serving the same favourite lunch every Sunday. For us that means chicken wraps! Or start Sunday morning with cinnamon buns. Or bake a yummy dessert that you eat on Sunday night. Perhaps you want to have a snack supper of popcorn, cheese, crackers, fruit and veggies while watching a family movie. Or make homemade pizzas.

Keep special art supplies, a box of toys or games that ONLY comes out on Sunday afternoons.

Acts of service: Can Sundays be a day you make cards for people? Call grandparents or friends? Check on neighbours?

Décor: There are so many lovely pieces of artwork that depict Bible scenes. Print a new one out each Sunday. Enjoy it throughout the week and anticipate what next Sunday's picture will be.

This is just a starting place. I am sure you can think of other ideas that will be just perfect for your family. Have a blessed Sunday!

Thank You for Praying

"With all prayer and petition pray at all times in the Spirit, and with this in view, be on the alert with all perseverance and petition for all the saints"

Ephesians 6 : 18

Notes of Praise:

- * We will be resuming our Sunday Morning Services, in modified form, with safety precautions in place, here at 310 Scott Street, beginning June 21, 2020 at 10:00am. Praise the Lord!

Prayer Concerns:

- * Juergen Harder's father, Helmut has been transferred to Shaver Hospital. He has been given a tentative discharge date of July 17th. Please continue to pray for healing, strength, and comfort for Helmut and Margot as they've been separated for 7 weeks since his surgery.
- * Lois Clattenburg's daughter fell last week after work and seriously hurt her arm. Please pray for healing, and comfort as she is still grieving the loss of her son last month.
- * Betty Anderson has been transferred to Shaver Hospital following her hip surgery. Please pray for both Betty and Kim as Betty has to recover alone due to the Covid-19 restrictions.
- * Gilles Groleau's daughter Chantal was admitted to hospital. Though she is not due until late July, she is in hospital on bedrest for 2-3 weeks and hope to deliver her baby between June 15-19. Baby's heart rate and blood pressure are good. Please pray for her baby and the whole family over this stressful time.
- * Please continue to pray for healing and comfort for Kathleen Grout and her family as they navigate this season of loss, and bittersweet relief.
- * Please pray for Bev Williams. She is experiencing incredible amounts of pain in her shoulders and back. Please pray for healing and relief.
- * Otto Roman will be requiring atrial fibrillation treatment following the lock down. Please remember this dear couple in your prayers.
- * Diane Morris, a former attendee here at GBC has suffered a major burn. Please pray for comfort and healing and no infection as she recovers, as she is having trouble scheduling a doctor apt.
- * Please pray for Ron Clattenburg's family as they make decisions about his long-term care.
- * Please continue to pray for those in our congregation suffering from ongoing pain. Please pray for Emilia Pirc, Sue Furness, Ron and Lois Clattenburg, Jaqi Shennan, Rosalie Pankoff, Eleanor Leigh.
- * The Luchkanyns ask for continued prayer for their friend, Quin McColgan, suffering from cancer. Update: His tumour has grown and doctors are considering changing his treatment.
