

Thank You for Praying

"With all prayer and petition pray at all times in the Spirit, and with this in view, be on the alert with all perseverance and petition for all the saints"

Ephesians 6 : 18

Seeking prayer for healing and comfort:

- * Fred Glucker, recovering at home from a broken collar bone, and Hilda who is already suffering from health issues.
- * Betty Anderson, recovering at home after hip surgery.
- * Juergen Harder's father, Helmut recovering after hip surgery
- * Lois Clattenburg's daughter, recovering from a fall.
- * Otto Roman will be requiring atrial fibrillation treatment following the lock down. Please remember this dear couple in your prayers.
- * Those in our congregation suffering from ongoing pain:
Emilia Pirc, Sue Furness, Ron and Lois Clattenburg, Jaqi Shennan, Rosalie Pankoff, Eleanor Leigh, Bev Williams.
- * The Luchkanyns ask for continued prayer for their friend, Quin McColgan, suffering from cancer. His tumour has grown and doctors are considering changing his treatment.

Praise the Lord . . . who satisfies your desires with good things.

Thrown into a project with his colleague Tim, Alvin faced a major challenge: he and Tim had very different ideas of how to go about it. While they respected each other's opinions, their approaches were so different that conflict seemed imminent.

Before conflict broke out, however, the two men agreed to discuss their differences with their boss, who put them on separate teams. It turned out to be a wise move. That day, Alvin learned this lesson: Being united doesn't always mean doing things together.

Abraham must have realized this truth when he suggested that he and Lot go their separate ways in Bethel (Genesis 13:5-9). Seeing that there wasn't enough space for both their flocks, Abraham wisely suggested parting company. But first, he stressed that they were "close relatives" (v. 8), reminding Lot of their relationship.

Then, with the greatest humility, he let his nephew have the first choice (v. 9) even though he, Abraham, was the senior man. It was, as one pastor described it, a "harmonious separation."

Being made uniquely by God, we may find that we sometimes work better separately to achieve the same goal. There's a unity in diversity. May we never forget, however, that we're still brothers and sisters in the family of God.

We may do things differently, but we remain united in purpose.
