

Thank You for Praying

Please continue to pray for those suffering loss:

- * Elaine Lichty, Sandra Rothwell, and Kathy Grout on the passing of their husbands
- * Heather Moore on the recent passing of her stepmother.

Seeking prayer for healing and comfort:

- * Lorna Neumann, recovering at home after a heart attack and surgery. Please pray for healing for Lorna.
- * Donna Warkentin is recovering at home following a successful surgery.
- * Mildred Levair has been in Shaver for physiotherapy for the last few weeks after an injury. Please pray for healing.
- * Daryl Ann Cowan has undergone treatments for Djogrens disease. Please pray for recovery as her immune system is quite compromised.
- * Hugh Rogers is still waiting for tests following his seizure (6 months ago) and can't drive until tests clear him. Eleanor is experiencing bad headaches but can't take medication for them. Please pray for this dear couple.
- * Sandra Rockefeller is still undergoing monthly chemotherapy treatments, Please continue to pray for freedom from infection and side effects.
- * Please also pray for those in our congregation suffering from ongoing pain or illness: Emilia Pirc, Sue Furness, Ron and Lois Clattenburg, Jaqi Shennan, Rosalie Pankoff, Eleanor Leigh, Bev Williams, Helmut Harder, Fred and Hilda Glucker.
- * The Luchkanyns ask for continued prayer for their friend, Quin McColgan, suffering from cancer. His tumour has grown and doctors may be changing his treatment.

Listening Beyond the Stars

"Seek the Lord while He may be found." Isaiah 55 : 6

Imagine life without mobile phones, Wi-Fi, GPS, Bluetooth devices, or microwave ovens. That's the way it is in the little town of Green Bank, West Virginia, known as "the quietest town in America." It's also the location of the Green Bank Observatory, the world's largest steerable radio telescope. The telescope needs "quiet" to "listen" to naturally occurring radio waves emitted by the movement of pulsars and galaxies in deep space. It has a surface area larger than a football field and stands in the center of the National Radio Quiet Zone, a 13,000-square-mile area established to prevent electronic interference to the telescope's extreme sensitivity.

This intentional quiet enables scientists to hear "the music of the spheres." It also reminds me of our need to quiet ourselves enough to listen to the One who created the universe. God communicated to a wayward and distracted people through the prophet Isaiah, "Give ear and come to me; listen, that you may live. I will make an everlasting covenant with you" (Isaiah 55:3). God promises His faithful love to all who will seek Him and turn to Him for forgiveness.

We listen intentionally to God by turning from our distractions to meet Him in Scripture and in prayer. God isn't distant. He longs for us to make time for Him so He can be the priority of our daily lives and then for eternity.

Scripture Reading — Acts 19 : 1-20 NKJV

And it happened, while Apollos was at Corinth, that Paul, having passed through the upper regions, came to Ephesus. And finding some disciples he said to them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?”

So they said to him, “We have not so much as heard whether there is a Holy Spirit.”

And he said to them, “Into what then were you baptized?”

So they said, “Into John’s baptism.”

Then Paul said, “John indeed baptized with a baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe on Him who would come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.”

When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. And when Paul had laid hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they spoke with tongues and prophesied. Now the men were about twelve in all.

And he went into the synagogue and spoke boldly for three months, reasoning and persuading concerning the things of the kingdom of God. But when some were hardened and did not believe, but spoke evil of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them and withdrew the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus. And this continued for two years, so that all who dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

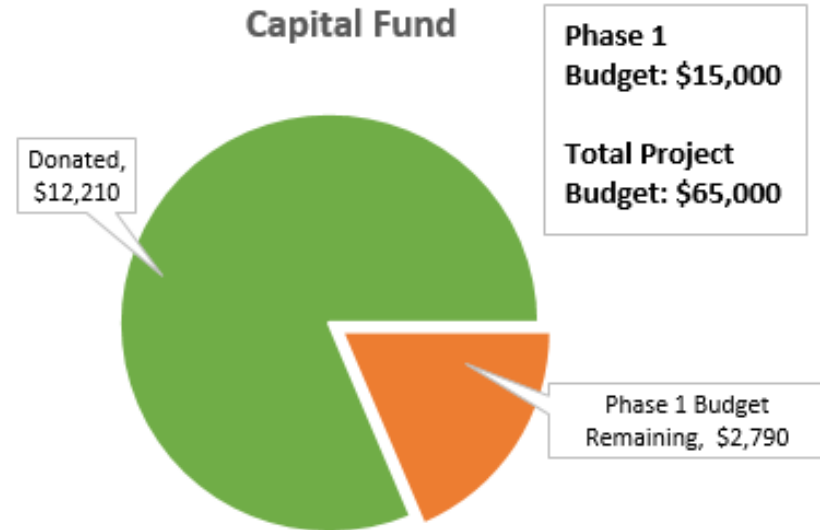

Now God worked unusual miracles by the hands of Paul, so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were brought from his body to the sick, and the diseases left them and the evil spirits went out of them. Then some of the itinerant Jewish exorcists took it upon themselves to call the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, “We exorcise you by the Jesus whom Paul preaches.” Also there were seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who did so.

And the evil spirit answered and said, “Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?”

Then the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, overpowered them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. This became known both to all Jews and Greeks dwelling in Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. And many who had believed came confessing and telling their deeds.

Also, many of those who had practiced magic brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. And they counted up the value of them, and it totaled fifty thousand pieces of silver. So the word of the Lord grew mightily and prevailed.

Our Building Project Campaign

As we can see, our project is well underway.

- Our storage area has been constructed & almost done.
- Our wall, at the back of the sanctuary, has been started in order to begin enclosing the soon-to-be GBC offices.
- Our mailboxes have temporarily moved into our Sanctuary.
- Our Bistro area work is progressing quickly.

All of this is made possible by God’s blessing through our congregation’s generous support of our Building Campaign.

If you would like to support this project, above your regular tithes and offerings, simply mark your receiptable gift as ‘Capital Building Project’ and leave it in the offering.

In other fundraising news:

Back by incredibly popular demand, our fundraising team has made more Ground Beef Meat Pies!

There is a limited amount available, so get your orders in ASAP. Juergen and Bobby are already drooling.

As always, the cost is $5 each or 2 for $10
Ask nicely and we’ll let you have 4 for $20

Mac & Cheese is also available at 2 for $5, or 4 for $10.
