

Next week,
Sunday, November 15th

will be a special
Missions Morning service with guest speaker(s)

Art & Dorcas Taylor from Welland Canal Mission.

Come and hear how this local mission is reaching out to the men on those amazing ships that pass through our region and how their lives are being changed.

To help support our Missions Support Budget for 2020, a specially-marked “Missions Offering” envelope will be added to the bulletin for folks to be able to support the missions, beyond their regular offerings.

Bobby! I think your lights might be a bit too bright this year!

Upcoming Events:

DiscipleLand Event for Kids (JK—Grade 6)

Thanks to all the kids
(Pastor Bobby & 'Uncle Don' too)
for dressing up as a Bible Character last week!

We are looking to have another DiscipleLand event for our Sunday School aged kids on November 22.
Please pre-register with
Angela for this fun event!

We're already looking at setting up our collection times here at GBC for our Operation Christmas Child shoeboxes.

This year, the need is even greater than before to let children know that they are loved by God and that people care about them.

Please think about taking a shoebox or two at the back of the sanctuary today and helping to make a child's Christmas one they'll never forget.

It's a great activity to do with your own young ones.

Imagine the impact you can have, and how God can use your gift!

Scripture Reading — Acts 21 : 15-39 NKJV

And after those days we packed and went up to Jerusalem. Also some of the disciples from Caesarea went with us and brought with them a certain Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we were to lodge.

And when we had come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly. On the following day Paul went in with us to James, and all the elders were present.

When he had greeted them, he told in detail those things which God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry. And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord. And they said to him, "You see, brother, how many myriads of Jews there are who have believed, and they are all zealous for the law; but they have been informed about you that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children nor to walk according to the customs.

What then? The assembly must certainly meet, for they will hear that you have come.

Therefore do what we tell you: We have four men who have taken a vow. Take them and be purified with them, and pay their expenses so that they may shave their heads, and that all may know that those things of which they were informed concerning you are nothing, but that you yourself also walk orderly and keep the law. But concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written and decided that they should observe no such thing, except that they should keep themselves from things offered to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality."

Then Paul took the men, and the next day, having been purified with them, entered the temple to announce the expiration of the days of purification, at which time an offering should be made for each one of them.

Now when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews from Asia, seeing him in the temple, stirred up the whole crowd and laid hands on him, crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, the law, and this place; and furthermore he also brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place." (For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

And all the city was disturbed; and the people ran together, seized Paul, and dragged him out of the temple; and immediately the doors were shut. Now as they were seeking to kill him, news came to the commander of the garrison that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. He immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. And when they saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. Then the commander came near and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and he asked who he was and what he had done. And some among the multitude cried one thing and some another.

So when he could not ascertain the truth because of the tumult, he commanded him to be taken into the barracks. When he reached the stairs, he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the mob. For the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, "Away with him!"

Then as Paul was about to be led into the barracks, he said to the commander, "May I speak to you?"

He replied, "Can you speak Greek? Are you not the Egyptian who some time ago stirred up a rebellion and led the four thousand assassins out into the wilderness?"

But Paul said, "I am a Jew from Tarsus, in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city; and I implore you, permit me to speak to the people."

Thank You for Praying

Please continue to pray for those suffering loss:

- * The family of Yvonne Watson.
- * Elaine Lichty, Sandra Rothwell, and Kathy Grout on the passing of their husbands.
- * Heather Moore on the recent passing of her stepmother.
- * Janet & Richard Dittrick suffering 3 family members passing away within a week.
- * Linda and Dennis James suffering the loss of a family member this past week.

Seeking prayer for healing and comfort:

- * Quin McColgan, (friend of the Luchkanyns) fighting cancer.

People Forget

"Remember how the Lord your God led you all the way." Deuteronomy 8 : 2

A woman complained to her pastor that she'd noticed a lot of repetition in his sermons. "Why do you do that?" she queried. The preacher replied, "People forget."

There are lots of reasons we forget—the passage of time, growing older, or just being too busy. We forget passwords, names of people, or even where we parked our car. My husband says, "There's only so much I can fit in my brain. I have to delete something before I can remember something new."

The preacher was right. People forget. So we often need reminders to help us remember what God has done for us. The Israelites had a similar tendency. Even with the many miracles they'd seen, they still needed to be reminded of His care for them. In Deuteronomy 8, God reminded the Israelites that He'd allowed them to experience hunger in the wilderness, but then provided an amazing superfood for them every day—manna. He supplied clothing that never wore out. He led them through a wilderness of snakes and scorpions and provided water from a rock.

They'd learned humility, as they realized how totally dependent they were on God's care and provision (vv. 2-4, 15-18).

God's faithfulness "continues through all generations" (Psalm 100:5). Whenever we find ourselves forgetting, we can think about the ways He's answered our prayers, and that reminds us of His goodness and faithful promises.

Our Building Project Campaign

As we can see, our project is continuing strongly.

- Our storage area has been constructed doors are on order.
- Our wall, at the back of the sanctuary, has been started in order to begin enclosing the soon-to-be GBC offices.
- Our mailboxes have been relocated to their new placement.
- Our Bistro area work is progressing quickly and also nearing completion.

All of this is made possible by God’s blessing through our congregation’s generous support of our Building Campaign.

If you would like to support this project, above your regular tithes and offerings, simply mark your receiptable gift as ‘Capital Building Project’ and leave it in the offering.

A gentle request from your humble Office Manager here at GBC...

We have Mailboxes at the back of the sanctuary for our regular attendees. If you don’t have one and would like one, please speak with Juergen ASAP so you can have one assigned. (there’s very few left). Also, these mailboxes are, especially around the Christmas Season and Year-end, a means of getting things like, cards, receipts, etc. to folks. Please don’t use the mailboxes as a ‘cubby’ to store things. We need to have space to put things in there for you too.
