Scripture Reading — Acts 28:11-31^{NKJV}

After three months we sailed in an Alexandrian ship whose figurehead was the Twin Brothers, which had wintered at the island. And landing at Syracuse, we stayed three days. From there we circled round and reached Rhegium. And after one day the south wind blew; and the next day we came to Puteoli, where we found brethren, and were invited to stay with them seven days. And so we went toward Rome. And from there, when the brethren heard about us, they came to meet us as far as Appii Forum and Three Inns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage.

Now when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard; but Paul was permitted to dwell by himself with the soldier who guarded him.

And it came to pass after three days that Paul called the leaders of the Jews together. So when they had come together, he said to them: “Men and brethren, though I have done nothing against our people or the customs of our fathers, yet I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans, who, when they had examined me, wanted to let me go, because there was no cause for putting me to death. But when the Jews spoke against it, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything of which to accuse my nation. For this reason therefore I have called for you, to see you and speak with you, because for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.”

Then they said to him, “We neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor have any of the brethren who came reported or spoken any evil of you. But we desire to hear from you what you think; for concerning this sect, we know that it is spoken against everywhere.”

So when they had appointed him a day, many came to him at his lodging, to whom he explained and solemnly testified of the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus from both the Law of Moses and the Prophets, from morning till evening. And some were persuaded by the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved. So when they did not agree among themselves, they departed after Paul had said one word:

“The Holy Spirit spoke rightly through Isaiah the prophet to our fathers, saying,

‘Go to this people and say:

“Hearing you will hear, and shall not understand;

And seeing you will see, and not perceive;

For the hearts of this people have grown dull.

Their ears are hard of hearing,

And their eyes they have closed,

Lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears,

Lest they should understand with their hearts and turn,

So that I should heal them.” ’

“Therefore let it be known to you that the salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles, and they will hear it!” And when he had said these words, the Jews departed and had a great dispute among themselves.

Then Paul dwelt two whole years in his own rented house, and received all who came to him, preaching the kingdom of God and teaching the things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ with all confidence, no one forbidding him.

GBC 2020 Annual Reports

To our ministry heads, we thank you for what you’ve done during 2020, despite setbacks and hurdles. We request that you get your annual reports to us so we can compile them for our Annual Congregational Meeting (though we’re not sure when that will be possible yet). Please don’t wait too long. It’s a lot easier to compile things ahead of time than in a last-minute panic.

Giving...

“Upon the first day of the week, let everyone of you lay by him in store as God hath prospered him” I Corinthians 16:2

General Offerings January 24, 2021.....$ 3,225.95
Memorial Gift to Capital project.....$ 25,000.00

If you would like offering envelopes for your tithing, please contact the office, or speak with Juergen or Carol-Dean and we'll get you set up.

Phase 2 of our Construction Project

As was announced during the September 12, 2020 congregational meeting, any unused, or surplus funds given towards the capital project would go towards the 2nd phase of the entire project, namely, the creation of GBC's offices in the old Library location. This phase to be voted on at the annual congregational meeting.

To the Glenridge Bible Church Family,

It is with great pleasure that we would like to present you with this bequest in the amount of $25,000 on behalf of our parents, Walter and Minnie Dyck.

Walt and Minnie were members of Glenridge since its inception and were very involved in the life and activities of the church until their passing, Minnie in January 2003, and Walt in August 2011. Our dad, Walt, was gifted with a rich baritone voice and loved to sing solos and help to lead congregational singing. He also served on the church board for many years.

Our mom, Minnie's gifts were more often exercised quietly behind the scenes. She faithfully attended Bible studies and prayer meetings and often enjoyed using her artistic talents to make posters and signs. Minnie was a woman of prayer with a kind, gracious and encouraging spirit, who could always be counted on to be there when needed. Their friends at Glenridge were truly family to them and a source of much joy, as well as steady support during the difficult seasons of life.

It is with gratitude for all of the gifts that they received at this church, as well as a sincere desire to know that the mission of Glenridge will continue beyond their own earthly journeys that prompted them to make this bequest. We pray that this gift will be blessed and used to the glory of God.

God bless you all,

The families of Walt and Minnie Dyck,

Sharon Agler, Wendy Dubeau, Tim Dyck, Sheldon Dyck

Children's Ministry

Any parents who would like to be part of the Children's Ministry mailing list, please email AngelaJantzi@hotmail.com to stay informed of upcoming events and program scheduling for when we are able to meet in-person.

Also, any juniors (grade 7+) who would like to help in nursery or children's ministry, stay tuned for a Plan to Protect training session. Date to be announced when we can open again.

New Photo Directory

We are updating our Photo Directory.

The office will be contacting folks to confirm the information in the directory.

For photos, we can either use existing photos, or we can take a quick shot of you here at the church, or you can email in a 'selfie'.

The point is, we want our church family to know who's who.

So: NO MASKS in your photo please. (that kinda defeats the purpose)
