Glenridge Bible Church’s “Mission of the Month” for July

Please remember to pray for,
and encourage, our GBC missionaries.

Rick & Heather Osborne

serving with Truth for Teens

We have teachers (mostly), directors, and admin folks lined up. But we could use helpers in our Gym (younger, more energy-gifted, individuals might feel more drawn to this role) and also “Listeners” that simply sit with kids at the beginning of the night to hear them say their verses and sign their books to show completion (this portion usually finishes by 6:30pm). Some classroom helpers can also help us in fulfilling our Safe Place obligations of personnel-to-children ratios.

It is very important to know that all volunteers must go through our Plan to Protect training and be ‘Safe Place’ certified. This process involves a Police Check (GBC covers the expense) and a training seminar held here at the church in September.

We are having a meeting for AWANA volunteers and leaders on Thursday, August 4th. Details to follow.

If you are interested in volunteering, please visit the AWANA table at the back of the sanctuary for a volunteer application form and to sign up or ask questions.

God Knows

Then the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh answered and spoke to the heads of the families of Israel.

“The Mighty One, God, the LORD, the Mighty One, God, the LORD! He knows, and may Israel itself know. If it was in rebellion, or if in an unfaithful act against the LORD do not save us this day! If we have built us an altar to turn away from following the LORD, or if to offer a burnt offering or grain offering on it, or if to offer sacrifices of peace offerings on it, may the LORD Himself require it.

But truly we have done this out of concern, for a reason, saying, ‘In time to come your sons may say to our sons, “What have you to do with the LORD, the God of Israel? For the LORD has made the Jordan a border between us and you, you sons of Reuben and sons of Gad; you have no portion in the LORD.” So your sons may make our sons stop fearing the LORD.’

“Therefore we said, ‘Let us build an altar, not for burnt offering or for sacrifice; rather it shall be a witness between us and you and between our generations after us, that we are to perform the service of the LORD before Him with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices and with our peace offerings, so that your sons will not say to our sons in time to come, “You have no portion in the LORD.”’
Joshua 22 : 21-27

A couple who stopped to admire a large abstract painting noticed open paint cans and brushes underneath it. Assuming it was a “work in progress” that anyone could help create, they stroked in some color and left. The artist, though, had purposefully left the supplies there as part of the finished work’s display. After reviewing video footage of the incident, the gallery acknowledged the misunderstanding and didn’t press charges.

The Israelites who lived east of the Jordan created a misunderstanding when they built a massive altar next to the river. The western tribes viewed this as rebellion against God—everyone knew the tabernacle was the only God-approved place for worship (Joshua 22:16).

Tensions mounted until the eastern tribes explained that they only meant to make a replica of God’s altar. They wanted their descendants to see it and recognize their spiritual and ancestral connection with the rest of Israel (vv. 28–29). They exclaimed: “The Mighty One, God, the Lord! He knows!” (v. 22). Thankfully, the others listened. They saw what was going on, praised God, and returned home.

Because God “searches every heart and understands every desire and every thought” (1 Chronicles 28:9), everyone’s motives are clear to Him. If we ask Him to help us sort out confusing situations, He may give us the chance to explain ourselves or the grace we need to forgive offenses. We can turn to Him when we’re striving for unity with others.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Our Office Relocation project is underway. We have the framing and ductwork completed, and both have passed their inspections. The electrical rough-in is done and the doors are mostly installed. If you'd like to see the progress, please remember to stay outside of the construction area. The windows offer a great view while maintaining safety.

Please do not touch any building materials that are temporarily stored in the lobby or Sanctuary.

If you have any questions, please speak with Frank Peters, Larry Srigley, or Juergen Harder following the service.

Glenridge Bible Church offers a Sunday School program called DiscipleLand for older children and a staffed nursery for each Sunday Morning service.

(DiscipleLand is not offered on the first Sunday of each month (Family Sundays), however, the nursery is available.

Children must be registered at the desk in the lobby to participate in DiscipleLand or the nursery.

Please email AngelaJantzi@hotmail.com to stay informed of upcoming events and program scheduling.

Additionally, for parents with infants, there is a quiet room available at the back of the sanctuary for nursing, changing, or simply fussing babies. Sound is piped in so you can still hear the service at a baby-friendly volume.

Thank You for Praying

Please pray for those suffering loss.
