Today at Glenridge Bible Church

He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together. He is also head of the body, the church; and He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that He Himself will come to have first place in everything.

For it was the Father's good pleasure for all the fullness to dwell in Him, and through Him to reconcile all things to Himself, having made peace through the blood of His cross; through Him, I say, whether things on earth or things in heaven.

Colossians 1 : 17-20

Scripture Reading — 1 Timothy 3:1-7

It is a trustworthy statement: if any man aspires to the office of overseer, it is a fine work he desires to do. An overseer, then, must be above reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, prudent, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, not addicted to wine or pugnacious, but gentle, peaceable, free from the love of money.

He must be one who manages his own household well, keeping his children under control with all dignity (but if a man does not know how to manage his own household, how will he take care of the church of God?), and not a new convert, so that he will not become conceited and fall into the condemnation incurred by the devil. And he must have a good reputation with those outside the church, so that he will not fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

Sermon Notes:

1. There is an _____ with in the Triune Godhead
2. Ultimate leadership of the church _____.
- 3a) At a basic level, the list of virtues in 1 Timothy 3:1-7 should be present in _____.
- 3b) However, this list of virtues primarily emphasizes the need of elders, pastors and deacons be held to an _____ of _____ and _____ conduct.
4. "Above reproach" _____
5. "The Husband of one wife" _____
6. "Temperate" _____
7. "Prudent" _____
8. "Respectable" _____
9. "Hospitable" _____
10. "Able to teach" _____
11. "Not addicted to wine" _____
12. "Pugnacious" _____
13. "Gentle" _____
14. "Peaceable" _____
15. "Free from the love of money" _____
16. "Manages his family well" _____
17. The reason a church should know these virtues is because they need to be able to _____
